

Activism in July!

In Canada, more and more burial sites of residential schools where Indigenous children were murdered have been uncovered. A reminder that this was not a long time ago, and the last of these schools closed in the 90s. Read here to learn more: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/world-us-canada-57325653>
Since this article was posted, more mass graves have been found.
May these children rest in peace.

Hate crimes on Jewish people in the UK have gone up a record amount in recent weeks. Read about anti-semitism, and how to be a better ally to Jewish people here:

In the UK, lots of COVID-19 restrictions are planned to be lifted July 19th. This means we can go out more, and lots more! However many women still feel unsafe on the streets. So for the men who are asking what they can do as men to make the streets safer for women, start educating yourself. Here is an article you can read:
<https://www.independent.co.uk/voices/women-sexual-assault-men-sarah-everard-b1816753.html>